

Carlo Medici

Position - Façade Engineer, Building Physics

Qualification - MSc in Building Engineering, Politecnico of Milan (Italy)

Carlo has a wide knowledge in Building physics and detail design. In addition to the MSc in Building Engineering he has attended several courses on building physics and NZEBs design.

He has 4 years of experience as a freelance building physics consultant in Italy, working on a number of low-energy and green buildings and assisting the architects in the details development with a focus on the best performing solutions.

Carlo is skilled at free-hand drawing, 2D CAD design, 2D and 3D thermal analysis and solar and light performance of façades.

Key FMDC project involvement:

Newington Butts, London (Resi - Mace, EPR)

Woodwharf A1, London (Resi - CWCL, HdM)

21 Moorfields, London (Office - Land Sec, Wilkinson Eyre)